MEDICINAL.

LONG STRING of ailments and derangements have their origin in torpor of the liver. Deranged appetite, constipation, headache, sour stomach, gassy belchings, indigestion, or dyspepsia, are due to sluggish liver.

Mr. J. A. DeBary, U. S. Inspector of Immigration at Buffalo, N. Y., writes as follows:

"From early childhood I suffered from a long string of ailments. Doctors' prescriptions and patent medicines afforded only temporary relief. I tried Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, taking three at night and two after dinner every day for two weeks and then one 'Pellet' every day for two months. I have in six months increased in solid flesh, twenty-six pounds. I am in better health than I have been since childhood. Drowsiness and unpleasant feelings after meals have completely disappeared. Respectfully yours,

John A. DeBary
U. S. Inspector of Immigration.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The President has nominated Brigadier General Thomas A. Ruger to be major general.

Both houses of the Oregon legislature have passed a joint resolution in favor of a constitutional amendment allowing women to vote.

The Rev. Dr. William Markergo Taylor, pastor emeritus of the Broadway Tabernacle, New York, died on Saturday morning.

The shipwreck of the Parnell, which arrived in New York on Saturday, had a terrible experience with a blizzard and rescued nine men from the fishing schooner Josie Reeves, of New York, that was sinking in a gale.

Owing to the defection of the Parnell, a conservative amendment to the Queen's address was only defeated in the House of Commons on Friday by a vote of 273 to 261, leaving the liberal government with a majority of only twelve.

The President has approved the act amending the interstate commerce law relative to the issue of joint interchangeable 5,000-mile tickets, with special baggage privileges, better known as the drummers' baggage bill.

During a trial in the Circuit Court room at Clarksville, Tenn., on Friday, the roof of the structure fell, causing a panic among the crowd in attendance. The building instantly caught fire, and in the rush for safety a man's leg was broken, and a number of other persons received serious injuries. Judge Wilson jumped from a window to the ground, a distance of thirty feet, and was slightly hurt.

Comitan, Mexico, a border town, is full of Guatemalan refugees who are arriving from the south daily by secret routes to prevent being pressed into the army service. They report great alarm prevalent among the people of the Republic of Guatemala, especially among the frontiersmen, over the threatened war with Mexico, and say that the greater part of the army of 12,000 men now along the border have been forced into service by the Guatemalan government. Many of them are willing to enlist in the Mexican army and fight against their own country, if thereby they can contribute to the overthrow of the rule of President Barrios.

CONFESSED KILLING HER CHILD.
Mrs. Annie Pensal, a thin, dark, trim, little woman, went to confession at St. Francis Xavier's Catholic Church Friday night and entered the confessional box in which Father McGovern was sitting. She seemed quiet and self-possessed. She told the priest that she had strangled and killed her six-months old baby Mary. She said that she lived at 111 West Fifteenth street, New York, with her husband Fred, who is out of work, and her three sons, her twin boys Fred and George, aged 6 years, and a third boy aged 4. For the last few days she said she had strange thoughts. She believed there were witches next door. She believed that she was bewitched and that she was soon to kill her little girl. There seemed to be no escape from her ideas. At noon on Friday she felt the time had come. The husband was not at home, and the three boys were playing together in one of the rooms. In another room was her daughter Mary, asleep on the bed. She went to the bed without waking the child, and thrust her hand down the child's throat until it choked to death. The girl made no outcry, and there was no struggle. The neighbors in the house heard and knew nothing of the deed.

When she had told how she had killed her baby, the priest left her in the church and stepped to the door to call a policeman. Officer Curran chanced to be going by and he was called in. The priest told him to go with the woman to her home and see if what she had said had really happened. The officer had said hardly believe it. The officer and the woman hurried around to her rooms, and there Curran found things very much as she had described them to the priest. He took Mrs. Pensal to the police station. She stood quietly before the desk and seemed at ease. The sergeant listened with unbelief to Curran's story and then turned to the woman and asked her if it was true. She brushed aside the plaid shawl which she wore on her head and said it was true.

She was sent to the Bellevue insane pavilion. The three little boys were sent to the Gery school.

In the malaria districts

there has been in use a remedy with good effects for nearly a quarter of a century. It is a preventive and cure that thousands make use of every year. Why? Because it never fails to do good—its medicinal qualities are certain. It is specific for this dread disease. It cures!

Brown's Iron Bitters
[Does not constipate or injure the teeth.]

Have you Malaria? Is the terrible poison in your blood? The symptoms: that intermittent fever which dries up your blood—your appetite fails—you have no energy, strength—that cold, chilly feeling which brings on nervous prostration, headache, neuralgia, aching pains. Have you these? It is your case
